Director's note

Last winter was pretty cold with many snow days. Spring, however, has come along accordingly with the seasons' clock, and we are ready to enjoy the warm weather outside. Our life will go on with our bad days and good days, but we will always enjoy the blessings from our God with His existence in our daily lives.

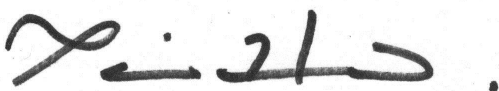

Today's program is based on our thanksgiving and gratitude towards God and His son, our savior, Jesus Christ. When we are glorifying and praising God, there shouldn't be any barriers between languages, whether vocal or instrumental music, or between races or genders. We are all the children of God and He loves us all with our varieties of differences.

As in past concerts at First Presbyterian Church, I tried to make a good balance between vocal and instrumental music in this program. The Handel's organ concerto and Quant's trio sonata will provide a pleasant musical conversation of instruments, and "Psalm 23", written by a Korean composer, Woon Young Na, will offer the wonderful experience of listening to a foreign language in praising God. (Just remember - it might be a mother tongue for some people here today!)

I hope you will enjoy every minute of this concert. After this concert, we will keep singing and praising God full of blessings in our hearts and minds.

Thank you for joining us this afternoon!

Director of Music Ministries

Psalm 23 - A Psalm of David (New International Version)

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
