UP-COMING EVENTS AT WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday, December 5, 2010 at 4 p.m.

Our Chancel Choir will perform Handel's "Messiah" with a guest chamber orchestra on Sunday, December 5, 2010 at 4 p.m. We will sing part I of the Messiah, with the exception of "His yoke is easy" replaced by "Hallelujah!" chorus. Westminster Chancel Choir invites all associate members and anyone who would like to sing this historical Christian music. Rehearsals for this piece will be on Wednesdays starting at 7:30 p.m. at Westminster Chancel Choir room and the date for a special rehearsal with a chamber orchestra will be announced soon.

Sunday, December 12, 2010 at 5:30 p.m.

Annual "Cocoa and Carols" evening event will be on Sunday, December 12. First we will enjoy chilly and pizza for the kids. All Westminster musical groups will participate with this exciting event. A night truly designed to help your Christmas spirit.

Sunday, December 19, 2010 at 9 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. Services

Westminster Messenger Choir will present Christmas Musical on Sunday, December 19 for services at 9 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. The title of musical is "Good King Wenceslas", story about a king who goes out to give alms to a poor peasant on the Feast of Stephen (the second day of Christmas, December 26). During the journey, his page is about to give up the struggle against the cold weather, but is enabled to continue by the heat miraculously emanating from the king's footprints in the snow. Handbells, flute, bass and tambourine players with a pianist will play with the children.
